An Act to amend Sections 193 and 195 of the Code of Civil Procedure of Guam, relating to the reporters of the Island Court of Guam.

Be it enacted by the People of the Territory of Guam:

Section 1. Section 193 of the Code of Civil Procedure of Guam is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 193. Appointment; qualifications. The Island Court may appoint official reporters for the court in such number as the Judicial Council may designate who shall be subject to removal by the court. The qualifications of the reporters shall be determined by standards formulated by the Judicial Council."

Section 2. Section 195 of the Code of Civil Procedure of Guam is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Section 195. Compensation and fee. Each reporter shall receive a salary to be fixed by the Judicial Council and may charge and collect fees, at rates fixed by the Judicial Council, for transcripts requested by the parties, but not for the certified copy filed with the clerk for the records of the court. Each reporter shall make such reports as the Judicial Council may require as to the transcripts prepared and fees charged by him."

Section 3. This Act is an urgency measure.

Approved July 3, 1956.
